Che il Codice appartenga alla prima metà del Secolo XVI..

ne fanno fede la forma dei caratteri che ricorda quell'è-poca, e quello che più importa la forma delle Note Musicali, diversa da quella odierna, se si consulta lo Zanfino nelle sue « Institutioni Harmoniche - Venezia 1564. »

Chè il Codice contenga poi la Musica di Canti Canoscialeschi e di Maggio di quel tempo, basterà citare che, ac^{114.} di esso, si trova, fra li altri, posto in Musica il noto canto dei Romiti dell'Ottorajo, che si legge fra i Canti Can-noschieschi raccolti e pub-blicati dalla stampa di fueca con la data di Cosmopoli.

Il Codice nell'insieme si detenersi in pregio come Docu-

Handwritten musical score on three staves. The notation is in brown ink on aged, yellowed paper. The first staff is a vocal line with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The second and third staves are for a basso continuo, both with a bass clef and a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are written in Latin below the staves. A large, ornate initial 'E' is visible on the right side of the page.
